Queries: are published free for our current subscribers and each subscriber is entitled to one query in each issue. Queries are not published for non-subscribers. There is no word limit, but we reserve the right to edit. Try to include as many dates and places as possible as to marriages, children, places of residence, etc. Please put your query on a separate sheet of paper and write "query" at the top of the page. We will not print queries if they are just a surname list, because these are of no value to anyone.

We want no errors in this quarterly. If you know of any error please notify us as soon as possible.

The Martin surname in the 1790 census

In the 1790 census of the United States there were 3,172,444 white people and 757,556 others for a total of 3,930,000 people.[1]

The following is an estimate of the nationalities of the 3,172,444 white people in 1790 and 1775:[2]

	1790	1775
English and Welch	82.1	60
Scotch	7.0	17-18
Irish	1.9
German	5.6	11-12
Dutch	2.5	7-8
French	.6
All others	.3
	100.0	95-98

It is estimated that the following numbers lived in areas not covered by the 1790 census:[3]

	American	French	Spanish	German	Total
N. W. Territory	4,500	6,000	-0-	-0-	10,500
Louisiana Purchase	2,900	12,850	2,500	1,750	20,000
Spanish United States	875	-0-	23,125	-0-	24,000

There were 27,337 surnames in the surviving 1790 census.[4] Except for New York, Pennsylvania and North Carolina the majority of the surnames were English and Scotch.[5] Half of the 27,337 surnames were in Pennsylvania and fewer names were represented in New England because they were mostly British stock.[6]

The surname Martin was spelled eight ways in 1790. These spellings were: Martin, Martain, Marten, Martine, Martins, Marton, Martten and Martyn.

For Diane Exum, page 34, this issue. According to tradition, Wright Martin's wife was Nancy Holsonbeck (Holsonback), but we don't have documented proof. The 1850 Mortality Schedule for Fayette Co., Ga. lists Nancy Martin, died Sept. 1850, 45 years old, born S. C. Wright's two deeds in Fayette were to Tandy D. King in 1826 and Pleasant Heath in 1831. I am trying to determine if any of the Andrew Martins in S. C. (1790, 1800, and 1810) link with my Andrew "Andy" P.(?) Martin who had at least two children born there around 1800-1805. The 1790 census of Fairfield Co., S. C. has an Andrew Moreton; and the 1800 census of Fairfield and of Union Cos., S. C. has two Andrew Martins; the 1810 census of Fairfield Co., S. C. has one Andrew Martin. Has anyone claimed any of these as an ancestor? What else is known about them? Also, has anyone any knowledge about the Andrew Martin who is listed as a grantee in Index to the Headright and Bounty Grants of Georgia 1756-1909? This Andrew Martin was granted 200 acres of land in Screven Co., Ga. in 1806. My ggg grandfather, Jordan Bonner (variously spelled), supposedly married a Miss. _____ Martin in S. C. They had one child which was burned badly and died. The mother also died. Does anyone have a record of this marriage or know anything about her, her parents or her siblings? Jordan and wife supposedly lived near the Pee Dee River. In 1805, my gggg grandfather's (Thomas Bonner, who married in Chowan Co., N. C.) estate was being settled in Clarke Co., Ga. One Elijah Martin made purchases at the personal property sale. Does anyone know anything about Elijah? Does he somehow connect with Andrew "Andy" Martin and the Miss. _____ Martin, who married Jordan Bonner? (I don't know, but strongly suspect, that the Martins and Bonners traveled from S. C. and possibly N. C. to Ga. and on into Ala. together). I have much on these families (see Vol. VIII, #2, Aug., 1982, Martin Family Quarterly), but I need much, much more, especially for late 1700's and very early 1800's. If you can help, please do. I'll gladly reimburse postage and copy costs.

Benjamin W. Martin and wife, Phabra Andrews Martin, appear on the 1850 census of Dale Co., Ala. This census indicates they were both born in S. C. as they indicate on the 1860 and 1870 Dale Co. census. Also, the 1880 and 1900 Montgomery Co., Tx. census. Benjamin W. indicates his parents were both born in N. C. Phabra Andrews Martin indicates her parents were born in S. C. Benjamin W. Martin, b. 5 Sept. 1823, S. C., d. 6 June 1910, Montgomery Co., Tx., m. Phabra Andrews, b. 28 July 1824, S. Ala.; Martha, b. 1841, Ala.; Richard, b. 1843, Ala., m. Mary _____; and George, b. 1846, Ala., m. Rebecca _____. Tabbitha, Smithy and John H. all came to Montgomery Co., Tx. in the 1870's. Also, Benjamin W. and Phabra Andrews Martin came in the 1870's. I think the names of Benjamin W. and Phabra's second and third children, John Samuel and Margaret Elizabeth are significant in that I know Phabra's father was Samuel and her mother was Margaret, while John H. Martin and wife's names were John and Elizabeth. Also, the two oldest children of John and Elizabeth were b. in S. C. as was Benjamin W. Can anyone help me prove John H. and Elizabeth were or were not Benjmain W. Martin's parents?
